

After all, it takes a "revival" to teach us a thing or two. One thing, at least, is taught by "Wang"—and by this is not meant that obvious lesson that they build opera, comic opera, musical comedy or what not better in "the olden days" than at present. At least the author and composer of "Wang" probably had no idea a decade ago that their work would be keeping their names green in the spring of 1934.

But the particular point about which we are making a noise is that the managerial mind no longer considers it essential to make a deafening noise in the matter of stage explosions. In "Wang" the attempt of the impetuous Regent to blow up those weird Cambodian creditors was marked by a concussion which gave the audience an awful lot of trouble. Now the explosion is so muffled that it is not more startling than the opening of another battle.

This is considerable common sense. It is well to leave something to the imagination in a case of this kind. An audience doesn't like to be frightened out of its seat. And, counting the penalties, terrifying explosions have doubtless in the past kept many women and children from paying tribute to the box office.

Speaking of children, have you recognized in no of the tolls who help Mr. Hopper with the "Baby" song "The Littlest Girl" of "Mother Goose"? This time her name—Helen Mooney—has been spelled on the programme. Had we suppose she has grown to consider herself an "actress" for it is she who so drolly says at the final encore: "I can dance no more to-night—my heart is breaking!"

Johnny Hyams, of the "Piff, Paff, Four" company, has recently been married to Leila McIntyre. Like most young husbands, he doesn't wish his in-laws to lose sight of the fact that he has acquired a wife, and his fellow-players are now resigned to the expression "My wife."

Mrs. McIntyre-Hyams has been playing in Boston, and when she learned that her husband were female attire in one act of "Piff, Paff, Four" she promptly sent him a perfectly ladylike collar, which would probably be termed by the fashion writers "a concession." Anyhow, it was built in several tiers of pale blue ruckings and faces. Very proudly Mr. Hyams donned it with his Dutch costume worn in the specialty called "Little," but when he appeared before his fellow-dancers, the night little English women who com-

WEEK'S STROLL FOR STROLLERS

First Annual Function in Madison Avenue Club-House to Be Held Next Week Under Distinguished Patronage.

MAY IRWIN WILL RETURN TO THE STAGE.

Women to Be Admitted to the Series of Entertainments for the First Time, and Many Novelties Are Promised.

Under the patronage of the leaders of New York's "500," the Strollers will celebrate their first annual spring-stroll in their Madison Avenue Club-House next week. Many innovations will signalize this affair. For the first time

A fine "breakfast" food, did I hear you say? You'll be three times wiser when you've discovered that a dish of "FORCE" and cream is just what your stomach is making signs for, the last thing before going to bed.

Try it to-night, and see how you'll sleep.

Sunny Jim

"FORCE" is no mere breakfast food. It is food, breakfast or no breakfast, a food for all times, a food for all people. Don't relegate it to any particular meal.

the club rule will be amended so as to permit the attendance of the fair sex. Among those who have already signified their willingness to become patronesses of the stroll, of which Mrs. John L. Golden is sponsor, are Mrs. Astor, Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mrs. Edmand Lacombe, Baylies, Mrs. Lloyd Bryne, Mrs. Royal Phelps Carroll, Mrs. Henry Clews, Mrs. John R. Drexel, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mrs. James W. Gerard, Jr., Mrs. Ogden Golet, Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin, Mrs. William Jay, Mrs. Lerillard, Mrs. Clarence Mackay, Mrs. Ogden Mills, Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, Mrs. Oakley Rhineland, Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. William Jay Schieffelin, Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, Mrs. Hamilton McK. Townsley, Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Mrs. W. Seward Webb, Mrs. Buchanan Winthrop and Mrs. Orme Wilson. Contrary to the usual custom of a single evening's entertainment, this Stroll will continue for six nights and two afternoons, when a novelty will be presented in the production of an original vaudeville in two acts, entitled, "Round Herald Square," by Strollers John L. Golden and Rupert Hughes. The second of which will be introduced "an original dramatization of a ton of tin and a bale of hay," entitled "The Wiz That Was," the book of which also is contributed by Stroller Golden and the music by Stroller Gustave Kerker, composer of "The Belle of New York" and many other successful musical plays and operettas. Two rare surprises have been prepared for the patrons of the show, for Miss May Irwin will on this occasion make her return to the stage after an absence of two years, and again be heard in her famous song successes, "The New Bull," and the funny "Frog" ditty; and Stroller Richard F. Outcault also appear at each performance and draw a comic picture, which will go to some favored spectator as a souvenir. The matinee performances will be on Thursday and Saturday. As the seating capacity of the little club theatre is limited to 125, the price of tickets has been placed at $5 each, and an auction sale of the privilege of first choices for the opening performance will be held in the club house on Sunday afternoon. The evening stroll will begin at 9 o'clock.

ESCAPED CONVICT CAUGHT.

Joseph Kulick Fled from Sing Sing Nine Years Ago. Joseph Kulick, a convict who escaped from Sing Sing on May 26, 1885, has been arrested at Leavenworth, Kan., on suspicion of having robbed a bank there and has confessed his identity. He is to be brought back to serve the rest of his term. Kulick escaped from Sing Sing through a defective window and swam the Hudson to the Rockland county shore. He had served only two months of his sentence, having been committed from this city for assault in the second degree. From time to time it had been reported during the past nineteen years that Kulick was dead.

Don't Poison Baby.

Forty years ago almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Drugs are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of paregoric containing opium are disagreeable, and sold under the name of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrup," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

FEMININE BEAUTY.

Many finely formed faces, with regular, pleasing, attractive features, are marred by a rough, coarse-grained, knotty, uneven, blotchy or pimply skin. A muggy, sultry, clay-like, lifeless complexion, a red nose, wrinkled or withered skin, detract greatly from what might otherwise be a handsome face to look upon. LEAURELLE (Laurel) BALM will remedy this—without question a most remarkable article. Its use assures a soft, smooth, even, pliable skin, and a complexion of exquisite beauty. Use it freely every day upon the face, neck, arms and hands, and you will be agreeably surprised at its wonderful and pleasing effects. Delightfully perfumed.

Banishes Blisters, Pimples, Blackheads. Just Lovely for a Coarse Skin.

Is She Handsome?

Not as to features, but what a fine, smooth skin and beautiful complexion! It is the lovely skin and the clear, bright life-like complexion that attracts, rather than the features. This is why youth is more attractive than age. LEAURELLE (Laurel) BALM, rubbed upon the face, neck, arms and hands, 8 or 4 times a week, will do wonders for your skin and complexion. It delights everybody; nothing in the world its equal, the wonder and pleasure of all who use it. Clears up the skin, improves the complexion. Exquisitely, delicately perfumed, harmless, pure, clean, and clear as crystal; a refreshing luxury.

THE SKIN AND COMPLEXION. No preparation yet devised meets all requirements without any objectionable features, like LEAURELLE (Laurel) BALM, or Essence of Nature, the toilet wonder. Its use assures a skin as healthy, smooth, soft and pliable as that of a babe. Gives universal satisfaction, receives the unstinted praise of and is in high favor with the best people everywhere. Prevents tendency to wrinkles, aging or withering of the skin; and for clearing and beautifying the complexion, healing, smoothing and preserving the skin, it is without a peer. Instant relief for Tetter, Abrasions of Skin, Scaly, Irritated, Inflamed Skin, Scalding, Chaps and Chafes.

MEN AT 50 TO 65 AS WELL AS WOMEN; full fleshed, the skin colors, an unnatural pink, a purplish blue, and brownish spots or blotches occur on the face, neck and hands; with some the tendency is to withering or drying up of the flesh and skin, wrinkles, etc. For all such conditions, Leurelle Balm has magic effect; if you massage, rub briskly, the face, neck and hands, every day with the Balm, the skin will be brought to and maintained in a normal and more youthful condition, well into extreme old age.

If Women who use face powders would first bathe the face with LEAURELLE (Laurel) BALM, then apply the face powders, they will be delighted with the result. Blagant effect, also preventing any roughening or injurious effect from the powders. WELLS' VELVET CREAM FACE POWDER, best made, white or flesh, 25c.

WOMEN WHO SEW or do any work that roughens or chaps the skin, will find one application of LEAURELLE BALM instantly smooths the skin, and can go about their work at once.

Men Who Shave. If the skin is tender, dry, scaly, rough, chafed or chapped, try LEAURELLE BALM. One application is instantly corrective and proves a delightful luxury. Beats them all. Superb, healing, soothing, refreshing. Delightfully perfumed. Try it once, you will never use anything else. Applied to inflamed, painful corns, bunions and callouses, it cools and soothes them. Applied to the whole foot, it cools, rests, gives ease and comfort. In fact as a lotion for the skin, on any part of the person, it is fine.

NO WAITING FOR RESULTS. LEAURELLE (Laurel) BALM differs from other preparations and is remarkable in that its effects are instantaneous in smoothing and healing chaps, chafes or rough skin. It is not greasy, sticky nor messy; dries instantly. Contains no oil or grease. The advantages of using LEAURELLE BALM are that only one application is needed, which will dry in instantly, leaving no trace, except a smooth, even skin. Does not grease nor soil anything; need not be covered up nor washed off; clean and harmless; does not soil silks, satins nor gloves. Delightfully perfumed. Sample (3 oz.) 16c, Small (4 oz.) 25c, Medium (10 oz.) 50c, Large (25 oz.) $1.00 at druggists. A $1.00 bottle and a 25c box of Wells' Velvet Cream Face Powder, or 25c in any other of my preparations, sent prepaid by express on receipt of $1.00. Not sent C. O. D.

WELLS' HAIR BALM FOR GRAY HAIR. But gradually restores gray hair to original natural color—Black or Brown; elegant tonic dressing; no oil, no grease, not sticky nor messy. Harmless. Stops hair coming out, frees head from and prevents dandruff. Best made. 50c. and $1.00 at druggists, or large size and 25c. in any above preparations, or any $1.25 assortment of above preparations, prepaid by express on receipt of $1.00. Not sent C. O. D.
